1967 Annual Exhibition of Contemporary Painting
December 13, 1967 - February 4, 1968

Whitney Museum of American Art
945 Madison Avenue at 75th Street, New York

Richard Lindner Leopard Lily

Foreword

Since 1932 the Whitney Museum has held a series of annual and biennial exhibitions surveying the field of contemporary American art. In the present exhibition, like its predecessors, the artists participate by invitation instead of submitting to a jury, and works are selected by members of the Museum's staff. By a tradition which goes back to Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney's first activities in American art, no prizes are awarded in this exhibition.

The 1967 Annual is devoted entirely to painting. The exhibition is more national in scope than in previous years. This was made possible by a grant from the Ford Foundation which enabled the Museum's staff to visit art centers throughout the United States.

The exhibition is made possible by the cooperation of art galleries, private collectors and artists who have generously made loans to the exhibition and to whom we wish to make grateful acknowledgment.

Since 1960, a larger catalogue with more illustrations has been published due to the continued support of the Friends of the Whitney Museum.
